TODAY'S LIVE NEWS OF SUNSHINE STATE

HEARST MAY BUILD A CASTLE ON CANYON RIM

One of Hearst Managers Says an Electric Railway from Flagstaff to Grand View is Part of Plans

The Flagstaff, Arizona Sun, discussing the recent purchase by William Randolph Hearst of the Grand View hotel property on the rim of Grand Canyon, says that speculation over what disposition William Randolph Hearst will make of his Grand View purchase, was settled by Manager Boswick of the Los Angeles Examiner, who was returning west over the Santa Fe after a consultation in New York City with Mr. Hearst.

Boswick stated that the plans were being drawn for three distinct propositions, which included, first, a palatial residence for the owner, a resort hotel to accommodate a large number of tourists and the building of an electric railway from Flagstaff to the rim of the Grand Canyon with the terminus at Grand View. There was to be no connection with the railroad running from Williams to El Tovar and the project of Mr. Hearst was to be, in short, a purely individual and independent one, so far as other interests were to be considered in an interlocking sense.

As to when the railroad will begin building or from what source the power is to be drawn were facts not given publicly, but it is believed the immense undertaking will be practically initiated not later than June or July of the present year.

Speaking of reports in circulation and published throughout the country that Mr. Hearst was to make Arizona his home, to gain recognition as an aspirant for future senatorial honors from this state, Mr. Boswick stated that such an impression was without any foundation whatever, and should be dispelled as a political forecast of the future.

Mr. Hearst is to make New York City his base of operations, but will be a frequent visitor to Grand View, where he will maintain a home and entertain his friends without any other motive than that of a private citizen who has invested in the country, and who is appreciative of its marvelous scenic attractions.

PUEBLO GOOD ROADS PARTY COMING TO NEW MEXICO

Colorado to Gulf Sociability Run in May will Bring Large Party of Automobileists to Raton

MAY DECIDE TO ROUTE RUN THROUGH STATE

[Special Correspondence to the Herald] Raton, N. M., March 15.—The business men's association has been advised that the Pueblo Automobile club's Colorado to Gulf sociability run, which this year will be made in May, will pass through Raton and may be routed through central New Mexico, over the scenic highway. The plans for the run are now complete, but it is thought that with proper effort from other towns in the state the party could be induced to make the run through New Mexico to El Paso.

An important meeting of the business men's association is to be held Monday evening to take up matters of interest to Raton and northern New Mexico.

It is officially reported that the site for Raton's new $75,000 federal building has been chosen at Washington and that the choice falls on the Stevens lots at the corner of Third street and Cook avenue.

Raton Elks have elected the following officers for the coming year: Exalted ruler, J. W. Farley; Esteemed leading knight, N. P. Turner.

Esteemed loyal knight, T. H. Morrow; Esteemed lecturing knight, Frank Gunn, Jr.; Secretary, Sam B. Beaudry; Tyler, E. E. Van Dusen; Delegate to grand lodge, H. P. Roseberry; Alternate to grand lodge, C. M. Bayne.

CARLSBAD SPRINGS COMPANY TO MAKE BIG IMPROVEMENTS

Carlsbad, N. M., March 15.—Carlsbad will shortly have a new addition of 500 acres located north and west of town, to be known as Carlsbad Springs. The property is that owned by the Carlsbad Springs company, which has gone to work to develop the springs.

These springs have been known for their medical properties ever since C. B. Eddy came to the valley and carved out the county which took his name, but they have never yet been properly financed. With a flow greater than any artesian well in the valley, they empty into the Pecos river thousands of gallons of water every minute. Patients suffering from kidney, liver and stomach trouble are much relieved by the water, which up to now has been used only internally. The Carlsbad Springs company, however, plans to build large bath houses in connection with the hotel projected. The capital stock of the company has been increased from $5,000 to $25,000. Besides selling the bottled water, the company contemplates selling lots and have platted the entire property lying south of the Pecos river, the site for the hotel has been decided on, and a river road, winding along the Pecos, bordered by shade trees, is in process of building. The matter of a country club house has also been discussed, and the company is considering the feasibility of donating land to the backers of the idea.

WANT CLUB ROOMS FOR THE GRAND JURY AT OLD TOMBSTONE

Tombstone, Ariz., March 15.—That it would pay Cochise county in many ways than one to fit up a reading and rest room for the jurors who are compelled to stay in Tombstone days at a time and who have no place to loaf except in the saloons, is the statement of H. A. Harding and other jurors who have just finished a term of service at the county seat. It is not so hard on jurors during warm weather, for they can loaf outdoors, but in winter after court hours it is either go to saloons or remain in one's room, which is almost invariably cold and cheerless, the jurors say. Always there are men on the jury who do not drink and who do not care to loaf in a saloon, but are forced to do so from lack of a more desirable place to go. Also, men who do drink are inclined to drink more than they otherwise would, and the spectacle of an intoxicated juror is not an infrequent sight, say persons who have attended court.

Mr. Harding says there are numerous unoccupied business houses in the county seat which could be fitted up at small expense as a reading and rest room for jurors and others in attendance at court. Later baths and gymnastic apparatus might be added, but the principal thing desired is to have a place to go beside the saloons. Purely from the standpoint of efficiency, he believes it would pay the county to provide such a place, and if possible, he suggests that citizens of the county raise the fund by subscription. Mr. Harding and others took the matter up with Judge Lockwood during their stay in Tombstone last week, and say the judge is giving serious consideration to the question.

DOUGLAS PROPOSES TO KEEP THE TWO GOVERNORS BUSY

Conference Between McDonald and Hunt on April 15th will be Made Occasion for a Celebration

[Special Dispatch to Evening Herald] Douglas, Ariz., March 15.—Now that the conference between Governor Hunt of Arizona and Governor McDonald of New Mexico is a settled fact, and the date for the meeting of the two executives here is settled for April 15, Douglas is preparing to make the meeting in behalf of good roads a celebration statewide in extent.

Besides the governors it is expected that there will be several other state officers from both Arizona and New Mexico at the proposed meeting, including road engineers of both states; invitations have also been extended to the county commissioners in several counties in New Mexico through which the Borderland road runs and the supervisors and county engineer of this county.

Preparations will be made under the direction of the chamber of commerce for a proper reception and entertainment of the two visiting governors while they are in this city and it has been suggested that Governor Hunt be accompanied to Rodco, where he will meet Governor McDonald at the Arizona line by as many from Douglas as can possibly spare the time to make this short trip. It is expected that Governor Hunt will arrive in Douglas on the evening of April 13, and that on the morning of the 14th he will start for Rodco to meet the coming executive from New Mexico. The road to Rodco is in good condition so that a drive there will be a pleasant one for all who join the Arizona governor on the trip.

It is expected that the principal entertaining event for the visiting governors will be a speaker at the Gadsden hotel, and it has been suggested that this speaker should be preceded by a reception to which the entire population of Douglas should be invited and that the Ninth cavalry band be secured for the rendition of a musical program.

Besides the invited guests a general invitation should be sent out by Douglas to all the residents of Cochise county bidding them to come to Douglas and assist in making the conference here one that will be memorable in the future of good road work in this section of the southwest.

WILL SELL STOCK IN ROSWELL FAIR ASSOCIATION

[Special Correspondence to the Herald] Roswell, N. M., March 14.—A proposition to incorporate an organization to be known as the "First State, Livestock Show and Products Exposition," and will sell shares at $5 each is to be presented to the people of Roswell and the valley in the near future by the committee recently named to arrange details for a Roswell fair. The committee, which held its first meeting yesterday afternoon, is composed of Messrs. A. D. Crile, T. A. Roff, J. C. Hamilton, W. S. Prager, Melvin Gray, W. A. Johnson and Jaffa Miller.

The committee effected an organization at the meeting, naming Dr. Crile as chairman and Jaffa Miller as secretary. Only a rough draft of plans was worked out, however, and it was decided that the exhibits at the fair shall include livestock, poultry, fruits, vegetables, cereals, bees and domestic science exhibits. Gambling and racing of all kinds will be barred. The full plans of the committee will be made public at a big mass meeting next Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Commercial club rooms. They may have some recommendation to make in regard to leasing the fair grounds west of the city, now belonging to the city. The committee visited the grounds yesterday and looked the situation over carefully. It is expected that the organization will be perfected at the Saturday meeting.
